Justine Mougín, Secretary general of Praemia REIM France

Justine Mougín, Director of Compliance and Internal Control at Praemia REIM France since 2012, is seeing her scope of responsibilities expand. She will continue to head up Level 2 control functions (Risk, Compliance & Internal Control) and will also take on supervision of the Legal Department, representing a total of 32 employees.

In this expanded role, Justine Mougín will support all Praemia REIM France departments as a true business partner. Her mission is to ensure compliance, control and adherence to the regulatory framework, while meeting the increased expectations of regulators and investors in terms of transparency and governance.

Marc Bertrand, Chairman of the Executive Board of Praemia REIM France, said: "I am delighted to welcome Aurélie Cohen to our Executive Board. Her solid experience in capital markets, financial communications and transformation, acquired within major international groups, will be a decisive asset in strengthening our client relationships and developing new offerings in line with investors' evolving expectations. I would also like to welcome the appointment of Justine Mougín, whose expertise and high standards will continue to strengthen our control framework and operational excellence. Their complementary backgrounds, combining customer focus, innovation, performance, risk management and operational rigour, reinforce our execution capabilities and support our ambition: to create sustainable value for our clients."

Aurélie Cohen, Managing Director of Praemia REIM France, comments: "I am very proud to be joining Praemia REIM. I look forward to working with all the teams in France and internationally to increase synergies and strengthen the momentum we have built, support the development of our offering and expand our distribution channels. In a rapidly changing market,
